

Municipal Building Department Services

2012 International Energy Code Submittal Requirements

Submit Manual D and J Compliance Documentation
(2 Copies)

ENERGY CODE COMPLIANCE OPTIONS
(2 Copies of one of the following)

Prescriptive	Trade-Off	Energy Analysis
Documentation showing compliance with the 2012 IECC including window and door schedules, foundation, wall and ceiling assemblies and heating and cooling equipment specifications. Master plans shall show compliance for each available option	ResCheck Compliance Report (Check for most current version) www.energycodes.gov Master plan ResCheck shall be submitted separately for each available option	Applicant provides a Certified Home Energy Rater Report performed by a Certified energy rater. Provide "As Built" report at time of Final Inspections Master plan energy rater report shall be based on worst case scenario. "As Built" report required at Final Inspections